Meallister Flippant.

All of the men except Meallister seem to feel their position keenly. He said very little when seen in the prison, and what he did say, was uttered in a flippant, swaggering tone. He sat on the floor of his cell smoking a cigar and reading a paper and did not rise when denying the story that his father and other relatives had abandoned him.

There is not a word of truth in it.

NEWARK CASH

Result of Bad Bookkeeping in the Water Department.

A deficit of $360,000 has been found in the Water Department of the city gov-ernment of Newark. The shortage is in the sinking fund established to meet the $5,000,000 new water-supply bonds issued in 1992 to pay for the Pequannock waterslied, which came into possession of the city Sept. 24 last. It represents 2 per cent. interest per annum on $2,000,000 of

The Common Council has been appealed to by the Board of Street and Water Commissioners to help them out of their dilemma. It is probable the Council will object to having so large an amount placed in the tax levy of next year. It will mean an increase in the tax levy of at least 25 points, and the present rate of $2.2 for 160 valuation almost caused an upheaval in the city when it was announced in July last.

In addition to the Boards of Street and Water Commissioners since 1891 that have allowed the deficit to accumulate, the Comptroller and the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund are involved. These Commissioners include Mayor Seymour, Comptroller Frederick T. Johnson, Judge Andrew Kirkpatrick, Frederick Frelinghuysen and Robert F. Ballantine. The Common Council has been ap slayers of Jennie Bosschieter and their victim about the country on the night she was killed, is out with a wierd story. Here it is in his own words:

"Late on the night that I drove the party, or rather early the next morning when I was coming home from the statuto, I had a strange feeling as though some one was following me—a sort of creopy feeling.

"When I got to my house I started up the stairs to my room, and there, at the head of the stairs, outlined by the faint light from the window, what do you think I saw?

"As true as I am sitting here I saw the figure of Jennie Bosschitter: It wasn't her figure, either, it was her Just as piain as life."

"Here the hackman shivered, as he recalled his experience.

"What did you do?" he was asked.

"Do? I fell on my knees and covered my face with my arms, that's what I late."

"And then?"

"And then when I looked she was gone."

"Did she say anything to you?"

"No. Just held out her hands and smiled at me. Oh, my God, will I ever forget it!"

Seulthrope sticks to his story despite the incredulity of some of his hearers.
